WC-1, Employees' and Physicians' Report of Injury: To be completed by the injured employee and the medical provider.
WC-3, Employers' Report of Injury: To be completed by the employer

A claim cannot be established until the Workers' Compensation Commission has received at least one of the forms listed above. This form should not be used to file occupational pneumoconiosis or hearing loss claims.

Please note that W.V. Code 23-4-1 provides that employees of the state and its political subdivisions are ineligible to receive workers' compensation benefits while drawing sick leave benefits at the same time for the same reason. You must make your choice known in Question 13 of this form.

To the Injured Worker: Section I of this form must be completed by you. When you have completed this form, make a copy for your records, and make a copy to give to your employer. The initial medical provider is responsible for completing Section II of this form, and your employer is responsible for completing the WC-3, Employers' Report of Injury. Both the provider and employer will be required to send the signed completed forms to the Commission. If you do not receive a decision on your claim within 14 days after sending the form, contact Workers' Compensation Commission. The responsibility of filing a claim rests with you. To be eligible for benefits, your claim must be filed with the Commission within six months from and after the injury or death. If you have any questions, you may contact the Commission at 1-800-231-4850 or visit our Web site at www.wvwcc.org.

To the Initial Medical Provider: Section II of this form must be completed by you. The timely provision of information regarding the injured worker's condition is vital in deciding eligibility for benefits. Each answer should be as specific as possible. You should immediately send a copy of all records, office notes, and test results regarding the injured worker's exam to Workers' Compensation Commission. After completing this form, please make two copies – one for your records and one for the injured worker to take to the employer. Your office is responsible for sending the signed original form to the Workers' Compensation Commission. If you have any questions, you may contact Workers' Compensation Commission at 1-800-628-4265 or visit our Web site at www.wvwcc.org.
