Read the back before completing this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

Complete this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

The section 2 includes the proposal to eliminate the Child amount for 2015 and subsequent taxation years in conjunction with the enhancements to the universal child care benefit (UCCB).

Last name	First name and initial(s)	Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address including postal code		For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every resident of Canada can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2015, see "More than one employer or payer at the same time" on the next page. If you are a non-resident, see "Non-residents" on the next page.

11,327

2. Caregiver amount for children under age 18 – Either parent (but not both), may claim $2,093 for each infirm child born in 1998 or later, that resides with both parents throughout the year. If the child does not reside with both parents throughout the year, the parent who is entitled to claim the "Amount for an eligible dependant" on line 8 may also claim the family caregiver amount for that same child who is under age 18.

3. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2015, and your net income for the year from all sources will be $35,466 or less, enter $7,033. If your net income for the year will be between $35,466 and $82,353 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1-WS, Worksheet for the 2015 Personal Tax Credits Return, and complete the appropriate section.

4. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $2,000 or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

5. Tuition, education, and textbook amounts (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university or college, or an educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, complete this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $400 for each month that you will be enrolled, plus $65 per month for textbooks. If you are enrolled part time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $120 for each month that you will be enrolled part time, plus $20 per month for textbooks.

6. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $7,899.

7. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $11,327 ($13,420 if he or she is infirm) enter the difference between this amount and his or her estimated net income for the year. If his or her net income for the year will be $11,327 or more ($13,420 or more if he or she is infirm), you cannot claim this amount.

8. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you, and whose net income for the year will be less than $11,327 ($13,420 if he or she is infirm and you cannot claim the caregiver amount for children under age 18 for this dependant), enter the difference between this amount and his or her estimated net income. If his or her net income for the year will be $11,327 or more ($13,420 or more if he or she is infirm), you cannot claim this amount.

9. Caregiver amount – If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $15,735 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older), enter $4,608 ($6,701 if he or she is infirm); or
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependent on you because of an infirmity, enter $6,701.

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $15,735 and $20,343 ($15,735 and $22,436 if he or she is infirm) and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1-WS and complete the appropriate section.

10. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – If you support an infirm dependant age 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $6,720 or less, enter $6,700. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant if you or anyone else has already claimed it on line 8 or 9. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $6,720 and $13,420 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1-WS and complete the appropriate section.

11. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition, education and textbook amounts, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

12. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition, education, and textbook amounts on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

13. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 12.

Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

Completing Form TD1

Complete this form only if:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration;
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed);
- you want to claim the deduction for living in a prescribed zone; or
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not complete Form TD1, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

- ☐ If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1 for 2015, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1, check this box, enter "0" on line 13 on the front page, and do not complete lines 2 to 12.

Total income less than total claim amount

- ☐ Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 13. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Non-residents (Only complete if you are a non-resident of Canada.)

As a non-resident of Canada, will 90% or more of your world income be included in determining your taxable income earned in Canada in 2015?

- ☐ Yes (Complete the previous page.)
- ☐ No (Enter "0" on line 13, and do not complete lines 2 to 12 as you are not entitled to the personal tax credits.)

If you are unsure of your residency status, call the international tax and non-resident enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281

Provincial or territorial personal tax credits return

If your claim amount on line 13 is more than $11,327, you also have to complete a provincial or territorial TD1 form. If you are an employee, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of employment. If you are a pensioner, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of residence. Your employer or payer will use both this federal form and your most recent provincial or territorial Form TD1 to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

If you are claiming the basic personal amount only (your claim amount on line 13 is $11,327), your employer or payer will deduct provincial or territorial taxes after allowing the provincial or territorial basic personal amount.

Note: If you are a Saskatchewan resident supporting children under 18 at any time during 2015, you may be able to claim the child amount on Form TD1SK, 2015 Saskatchewan Personal Tax Credits Return. Therefore, you may want to complete Form TD1SK even if you are only claiming the basic personal amount on this form.

Deduction for living in a prescribed zone

If you live in the Northwest Territories, Nunavut, Yukon, or another prescribed northern zone for more than six months in a row beginning or ending in 2015, you can claim:

- $8.25 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone; or
- $16.50 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone if, during that time, you live in a dwelling that you maintain, and you are the only person living in that dwelling who is claiming this deduction.

Employees living in a prescribed intermediate zone can claim 50% of the total of the above amounts.

For more information, go to www.cra.gc.ca/northernresidents.

Additional tax to be deducted

You may want to have more tax deducted from each payment, especially if you receive other income, including non-employment income such as CPP or QPP benefits, or old age security pension. By doing this, you may not have to pay as much tax when you file your income tax return. To choose this option, state the amount of additional tax you want to have deducted from each payment. To change this deduction later, complete a new Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, complete Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source for Year(s) _____, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.

2015 Nova Scotia Personal Tax Credits Return

Read the back before completing this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Complete this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

Last name	First name and initial(s)	Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address including postal code		For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every person employed in Nova Scotia and every pensioner residing in Nova Scotia can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2015, see "Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?" on the next page.

2. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2015, and your net income from all sources will be $30,828 or less, enter $4,141. If your net income for the year will be between $30,828 and $58,435 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NS-WS, Worksheet for the 2015 Nova Scotia Personal Tax Credits Return, and complete the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,173, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Tuition and education amounts (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, complete this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $200 for each month that you will be enrolled. If you are enrolled part time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $60 for each month that you will be enrolled part time.

5. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $7,341.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you, and his or her net income for the year will be $848 or less, enter $8,481. If his or her net income for the year will be between $848 and $9,329 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NS-WS and complete the appropriate section.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be $848 or less, enter $8,481. If his or her net income for the year will be between $848 and $9,329 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NS-WS and complete the appropriate section.

8. Caregiver amount – If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $13,677 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older); or
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependent on you because of an infirmity, enter $4,898.

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $13,677 and $18,575 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NS-WS and complete the appropriate section.

9. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – If you are supporting an infirm dependant aged 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $5,683 or less, enter $2,798. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant you claimed on line 8. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $5,683 and $8,481 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1NS-WS and complete the appropriate section.

10. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition and education amounts, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

11. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition and education amounts on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

12. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 11.

Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Completing Form TD1NS

Complete this form only if you are an employee working in Nova Scotia or a pensioner residing in Nova Scotia and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration;
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed); or
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not complete Form TD1NS, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1NS for 2015, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1NS, enter "0" on line 12 on the front page and do not complete lines 2 to 11.

Total income less than total claim amount
☐

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Then your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, complete "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, complete Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source for Year(s) _____, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
